Labor Day Weekend (September 4-7, 2009)

www.ncarise.org

History Making – Two Arise weekends this Labor Day. As Arise continues to expand across the state, this will allow opportunity for more of the ARISE community to get involved; as well as the ability for us to reach out better to the far Eastern and Western parts of the state, by allowing the youth involved and the guests and families we are asking to go to not have to drive so far. We will continue to come together for community days and celebrate as a community of one. Please pray for these weekends and come out the one or the other Jubilees to support the weekends.

Letters from the Lay Leaders...

Arise #28, Camp Rockfish, Lay Leaders – Robert Martin and Julie Duncan

Dear Arise Family, Labor Day Weekend is almost here and this year we have even more to celebrate than usual. We are thrilled to be a part of the first weekend with TWO camps. This means that even more guests can come and experience what an Arise weekend has to offer. Team #28 has been working very hard ensure our guests an awesome weekend. The theme for this weekend is "I will put My bow in the clouds" (Genesis 9:13). The rainbow God put in the clouds after the rain stopped was a symbol of hope to Noah and all of us. It reminds us that every cloud has a silver lining. Also God gave us this Earth as a gift and we should care for the gift and keep it in the best condition possible, so we are also focusing on living green. We want to invite all of our Arise family to come join us, in body or in spirit, at Jubilee as we celebrate His love. We ask you to pray along with this team for the new Risers and the weekend they are about to experience. We pray that they will feel the joy of God's love as it surrounds them. We hope to see you soon.

God loves you and so do we, Robert and Julie

Arise #29, South Mountain Christian Camp, Lay Leaders – Luke Hester and Tricia Worthington

We are very exciting to be having two Arises going on at the same time. Arise 29 will be the first weekend at South Mountain Christian Camp. What an adventure it has been. It's amazing how God works to support the weekend, and find the people needed to work. The theme of the weekend is from Psalms 121:2 "My help comes from the Lord, the Maker of heaven and earth". What a powerful message that speaks to the team as we prepare for the weekend. My help comes from the Lord. He is the one that spoke to so many of us, telling us it would be possible, and he is the one that will bring the weekend together. This will also be a powerful message for the Risers as they learn to seek help from the Lord. We pray that the weekend will be everything that God intended.

God loves you and so do WE, Luke Hester and Tricia Worthington

Jubilee Info

Spread some agape with the guests and team of Arise #28 & #29. It means so much to the new guests to be welcomed into our extended family through this act of love. Whether you are sponsoring someone, or not, or just want to come out to support the community, join in this evening of fun. This is a great way to be involved in the weekend without being on the team.

Meet at either camp,
Sunday, September 6th, at 5:30PM.
Signs in camps will direct you where to go.

If you still have agape letters for guests or team, a drop off box will be available at the meeting place.
